

ISCA 2022

International Scientific Conference on Albinism

A global forum to improve the health of those with albinism

Online conference | 16-19 Nov. 2022

Posters

Poster Exhibition

Of note: all posters will be accessible for viewing as a downloadable PDF file throughout the duration of the conference.

- Stéphanie NTSAME NGOUA (Libreville, Gabon): Dermatological Complications of Albinism in Dermatology Consultation at the University Hospital Center of Libreville.
- Maria-Jesus TORRES (Barcelona, Spain): Ectropion in subjects with Albinism
- Gaylord INENA WA INENA (Kisangani, DRC): Comorbidity of Sickle Cell Trait and Albinism: A Cross-Sectional Survey in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.
- Claudia POLO (Buenos Aires, Argentina): Management of Nystagmus in albinism.
- Sonia GUHA (Los Angeles, CA, USA): Ocular Albino Mouse RPE and Retina have Distorted Morphology
- Nereida PALKO (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil): Brazilian National Policy for People with Albinism: Sunscreens and Government Publications
- Juliana SEMIÃO de MELO (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil): Social Movements in the Brazilian Community of People with Albinism - Social Media, Internet and “Media Diary”
- Maria Eduarda VIANNA de QUERIOZ (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil): Eugenics in the 20th Century - Possible Effects on Health Public Policies for People with Albinism in Brazil

Live Poster Session – Thursday November 17th

6:00pm - 7:30pm (CET)*

During this live session, poster presenters will be available in separate meeting rooms to present their posters and answer live questions from the participants.

*CET: Central European Time (UTC+1). Make the appropriate adjustment according to your time zone.

With the financial support of:

International League of Dermatological Societies
Skin Health for the World

